Boundaries for Wood, Adams Schools Voted

Proposed new boundaries for the attendance areas at Adams and Wood Elementary Schools were approved by the Torrance School Board Tuesday night. The action was taken because of the approaching opening of Adams School, 2121 W. 238th St., which will drastically reduce double sessions at Wood School. The new school is expected to open in mid-April. Under the revised boundaries, the Adams attendance area will include all homes south-east of Walnut and Sepulveda; those along 236th St. and south thereof between Arlington and Walnut; those along 237th St. and south thereof between Pennsylvania and Arlington, and south of the mid-line of 238th St. between Crenshaw and Pennsylvania.

Scout Troop 252

Investiture Ceremony was held for Connie Swenson on Feb. 4, at the weekly meeting of Girl Scout Troop 252.

A Valentine party was held Feb. 11, at which 55 Valentine tray favors were made for Children's Ward at Harbor General Hospital. Games were played and refreshments served.

A tour of "The Banning Mansion" and an outing in Banning Park in Wilmington, was enjoyed on Saturday Feb. 20.

Savings Institute Reveals Plans for Fashion Show

Colorful spring blossoms will decorate the scene of the Annual Ladies Fashion Show and Luncheon sponsored by the Los Angeles Chapter, American Savings and Loan Institute. This year's beautiful fashion fete will be held in the Biltmore Bowl, Biltmore Hotel on April 2, 1960.

Again this year, the stunning group of fashions will be presented by Ethel Joutras, head of The Little Couture, and planned for the special requirements of business women in the Southern California area. Miss Joutras promises a "show of custom designs geared to the needs, wants, desire and pocketbooks of those in attendance, covering all figure types, age groups, and income levels."

"I WILL SHOW," she states, "a well balanced selection of basic California designed dresses, suits and costumes for daytime wear, casual clothes for functional living; dressy afternoon, cocktail, dinner and theater clothes, sportswear, play clothes, swimwear, and beach, patio and poolside attire."

Hats, furs, formal and informal evening gowns will also be included. The fashions to be presented are in sparkling colors ranging from pinkish to coral reds, mustard to orange and, of course, the varying hues of blue.

MISS JOUTRAS is a former fashion coordinator for Marshall Field of Chicago. She also taught fashion in merchandising at Northwestern University. Since coming to California she served six years as executive director of the Affiliated Fashionists of California, and West Coast fashion director, advertising and promotional director for Cohama Fabrics.

The traditional social event will be chaired this year by Barbara Buck of Home Savings and Loan Association. Her committee consists of Marcella Rose, Commonwealth Savings, Frances Maschio, First Federal Savings, Katherine Hackstaff, Los Angeles Federal Savings, Mildred McGee, American Savings, Lura Estess, Community Savings, Harriet Dawn, World Savings, and Bonnie Hamilton, Southern Federal Savings.
